Statement by the MEC of Education Limpopo, Mavhungu Lerule-Ramakhanya, on the passing away of Professor Muxe Nkondo

The MEC for Education in Limpopo, Mavhungu Lerule-Ramakhanya has expressed her great sadness at the news of the passing away of Professor Muxe Nkondo, Son of the Soil, and a well-known academic and heritage expert in the struggle against the tyranny of apartheid and the development of the democratic order in the post-1994 period.

MEC Mavhungu Lerule-Ramakhanya joins the people of the country and the diaspora in offering her deep condolences to the family, friends and associates nationally and internationally. Prof Nkondo passed away in the early hours of Sunday, 18 August 2024.

"It is with heavy heart to learn about the passing of Prof Muxe Nkondo, who has largely played a critical and pivotal role both in education and shaping up our country from the bondages of apartheid accumulation regime to what it is today. I express my sincere, heartfelt condolences to everyone the Prof has touched and share a laughter with, May the soul of the Prof Nkondo Rest In Peace, " said the MEC
